Employee Conduct Policy

Sample Company | Training and Demo Document | Version 1.0

Purpose

This policy sets expectations for professional behavior, ethics, and respectful communication.

Professional Conduct

Employees must treat colleagues, customers, and visitors with respect. Bullying, harassment, threats, and discrimination are prohibited.

Dress Code

Employees should wear clean, professional attire appropriate for their job and workplace safety requirements.

Conflicts of Interest

Employees must disclose financial or personal interests that may influence business decisions. Gifts above INR 2000 require manager approval.

Confidentiality

Employees must not share customer information, employee records, internal documents, or confidential business plans without authorization.

Disciplinary Process

Reported misconduct is reviewed by HR. Corrective actions may include coaching, a written warning, or further action depending on severity.

Note: This is fictional sample content created for Python PDF text extraction and search practice.